

OUR GUIDE TO CHOOSING A CAREER

There are thousands of different types of jobs out there, but which one is for you? Maybe you already had your heart set on a particular career path but now need to rethink it fast or perhaps there's too many options for you to choose from. Don't panic! There are many ways to start to narrow down the field from discovering where your passions lie by thinking about what you like doing, to hearing from other people about their careers and why they would recommend them.

Take a look at some of these links to feel inspired about your career options:

allabout
careers

All About Careers:

Explore different sectors and take the careers test

Careerpilot

Career Pilot:

Explore careers by sector or subject

CONSTRUCT

Go Construct:

Explore construction careers and take the career explorer quiz

implayable

The implayable app:

Find jobs, apprenticeships and training. Explore careers and get support

National Careers Service:

Explore careers by sector

PROSPECTS

Prospects:

Explore careers by sector and employer

Skills Launchpad Plymouth:

Explore careers and local opportunities

TARGET
careers

Target Careers:

Employers, salaries and routes into each sector